PROVINCIAL SECRETARY.

RE RICHMOND MUNICIPALITY.

The Hon. the Provincial Secretary, Victoria :

SIR,—I have the honour to notify you, in terms of sub-section (b) of section 137 of the "Municipal Act, 1892," that in course of my audit of the accounts, &c., of this Municipality to 31st December, 1892, irregularities are disclosed as follows :—

In November, 1889, a sum of $300 was authorized by the Council, and a cheque drawn accordingly, to be placed to a sinking fund, under "Loan By-Law, 1888," to be opened at the Bank of British Columbia, New Westminster. Such account was never opened, the cheque was used as cash and paid into the general account at the bank with ordinary revenue collections, consequently the equivalent value must be in the hands of the late Clerk and Collector (O. D. Sweet).

Fifty dollars appears as overpaid, or twice paid, to a Chinaman (Ah Lin) in November, 1890. The cheque for it was signed by J. W. Sexsmith, Reeve, and O. D. Sweet, C. M. C., and is not authorized by the Council. Mr. Sweet has since stated in writing that "this was an error and ought not to have occurred."

In September, 1891, a cheque for $50 was paid to O. D. Sweet, bearing on its face a memorandum "Bank Com. on Draft." The bank repudiate this and state that whatever commission it was entitled to in the matter was deducted in crediting the Municipality's bank account with the proceeds of the debentures to which the transaction referred. A first interview with Mr. Sweet only elicited information in accordance with the memorandum on the cheque, but subsequently, when being informed that the bank repudiated it, he admitted he had got cash for it, and that it was "a sort of refund," which is difficult to understand.

At the Council meeting held 18th October, 1890, a report is entered showing certain work completed by Geo. Oliver and recommending payment of the balance, $557. A cheque was drawn for that amount, dated the same day, and bears the endorsement of G. Oliver and O. D. Sweet, and is stamped as paid by the bank "15th January, 1891." Another cheque in favour of Geo. Oliver for $150, signed by J. W. Sexsmith, Reeve, and O. D. Sweet, C. M. C., dated the day following (19th October, 1890,) also appears, although there is no minute or authority of the Council for it. The only explanation with regard to it, from the best evidence obtainable, is that this $150 was given as part payment of the $557, and consequently makes $150 more paid out than the minutes warrant. The Reeve (Mr. Sexsmith), in answer to questions at an electioneering meeting, stated that the $150 cheque was signed because there was not sufficient funds in the bank at the time to meet the $557, although he ought to have known, if he didn't, that the Clerk and Collector must have had some thousands of dollars of the Municipality's money in hand.

On the 30th June, 1891, a cheque for $100, drawn and signed in the same manner, was also given without warrant or authority. A sum of $66.15 is due from the late Clerk and Collector for interest charged by the bank on overdraft prior to 31st December, 1891, caused by his improperly holding moneys for his own use which ought to have been paid into the bank. The above items, amounting to $716.15, have been entered as a counter-claim against O. D. Sweet in a County Court suit now pending.

In consequence of the Reeve having set at defiance the orders of the Council to sign certain cheques for the transfer or refund from one account to another (for the avoidance of bank overdraft) a sum of $63.46 is estimated as due from him to meet the bank's charge of interest in the interim, until a by-law authorizing another person to sign could be arranged and passed. This amount has been surcharged on Mr. Sexsmith.

In or about the month of May, 1891, ex-Councillor Wm. Nicoll, acting as a Board of Works in the ward he then represented, caused work to be done on his own private property for which the Council paid $60 on the 23rd May, 1891. This being regarded as contrary to law has been surcharged on Mr. Nicoll.

Through casual interrogation as to the meaning of certain somewhat vague minutes, and enquiries at the bank in Vancouver, it is discovered that on the 17th August, 1891, J. W. Sexsmith, as Reeve, accepted an order for $1,313.02, made by McLean Bros., in favour of Leamy & Kyle, which is held by the Bank of British Columbia, Vancouver, for value advanced. Mr.

Sexsmith stated that $800 had been paid on account of this by McLean Bros., but such is not the fact. The bank has been notified as to the unlawfulness of this, as in addition to its not bearing the necessary seal of the Corporation it was never authorized by the Council.

In 1891 a by-law, called the "Steveston Sidewalks By-Law," was passed to raise a sum of $1,500 on certain lots in Steveston Townsite, to be paid up in one sum from each lot benefitted by the sidewalks. This work was at once proceeded with and paid for out of the general revenue, and although it is now discovered that the cost was $1,727 according to price and measurement of the work, and up to this time only $1,037 has been paid, leaving a balance of $690, which has been surcharged on W. H. Steeves, he being the person by whose order and direction the work was done, and there being grave doubt whether it can be collected, some of the work being done on avenues not mentioned in the by-law, and others provided for in the by-law being left out altogether.

"Steveston Local Improvement By-Law, 1891."—The work under this has been conducted in a most erratic and unbusinesslike manner, and although specially and repeatedly notified to attend in conference, Mr. Steves, who had the direction of the work, has treated every notice with defiance; consequently, with the best evidence at command in his absence, a sum of $338.92 is deemed to be unlawfully expended, and he is surcharged accordingly.

Attention having been called to alleged improprieties under the dyking contract with McLean Bros., under the "Lulu Island Local Improvement By-Law, 1891," the engineer in charge was written to and his reply indicated that the work was not being done according to plan and specification. The Council were therefore addressed by letter whilst in meeting assembled, with the result that Mr. Sexsmith (Reeve) and Councillor Mellis were appointed a committee to confer with the Auditor on the subject, but neither word nor line has been received from them, and Mr. Sexsmith has been heard to say that it was no use as they could not put in writing what was asked, viz.:—That the work was being done according to plan and specification. The Council has, however, taken the matter up and special negotiations are going on in reference to it, but it may be remarked that a sum of $5,000 was paid to the contractors in September, 1891, before any work had been done, and in fact they appear to have been paid in advance for all work prior to April, 1892.

The moneys raised by debentures under "Richmond Loan By Law, 1891," has been spent regardless of the conditions of the by-law, and may be summarized as follows :—Ward I. was awarded $6,026.66 and $6,007.92 has been expended, and there is still owing for work done $762.22, making an excess of $743.48, but in this ward it should be mentioned that the by-law stipulated that the appropriation should be divided between the two main roads on Sea Island, whilst the Councillor (W. Nicoll) then in charge of the work, had nearly all spent on the one leading to his own residence. Ward II. was apportioned $4,655.66, and there has been expended $5,591.84, being an excess of $936.22, and there is still owing for work done $3,396.78, making a total overdraft of $4,333.00. Councillor Mellis, who had charge of this work, has been surcharged with the $936.22. Ward III. was allotted $5,969.37, out of which has been paid $5,769.16, and there is still owing $2,908.63, making an overdraft of $2,708.42. Ward IV. was given $5,813.77, out of which has been disbursed $3,038.11, leaving a credit balance of $2,775.66. Ward V. got $6,535.44, of which $5,920.64 has been paid out, and there is $439.02 still owing, leaving a credit balance of $175.78. Thus aggregating an over-expenditure of $7,784.90 in Wards I., II. and III., whilst only $2,951.44 remains to the contra in Wards IV. and V.

About the middle of 1891 Mr. Steves offered a site—some 30 feet by 40 feet—for a lock-up, and produced a tender for the erection to cost $195. The Council resolved to accept this and to pay the $195 on the title deed being handed to the Council which, as indicated by the minutes, was done on the 1st August, 1891, and the money paid, but it now transpires that although the Corporation has spent in all about $250, the title is of no value and cannot be registered because of heavy encumbrances.

The practice has prevailed of paying out moneys without taking receipts—cheques payable to order are not a satisfactory settlement of an account—but in this instance cheques are given payable to bearer and no receipt taken. The present Clerk had erred slightly in this respect, but the late Clerk had, during 1891, allowed $8,461.65 to be paid out by cheques payable to bearer without any receipt. He has, however, now signed a formal declaration to the effect that all the obligations of the Council referred to in the accounts purporting to be paid by the respective cheques have been fully discharged, and that the said amounts are for bona fide work done for the Municipality.

In terms of the respective Loan By Laws on which debentures have been issued a sum of $6,900 should ere this have been put aside as sinking fund, but nothing whatever has been done.

There is also a sum of $2,526.42, being part of the principal sum raised under "Loan By-Law, 1888," which has been absorbed for purposes other than those stipulated in the by-law, and should be adjusted in fairness to the localities for whose benefit it was voted.

The books of accounts have been very imperfectly kept, in fact no cash book at all was kept during the last 12 months of the late Clerk's reign. There are six bank accounts open, and not one of them agrees with the fund it purports to represent.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

JOS. PEIRSON,

Auditor.

Victoria, 24th January, 1893.
